Closely questioned by Attorney Patterson, George S. Raymond, inspector-general of schools, admitted that, after having cautioned the Browns once, there had been no further complaint trem any source. He had landed at Waimea once and gone straight to the house of Miss Hofgaard, a teacher in the same school. Mrs. Brown had learned of this and, apparently slighted at the act of lese majeste, had had some discussion about it with Ray mond, yet this had not been material and could not be held as much of a charge against the Browns, it was

Police, beware!

Should any person be thrown into inil and kept there for more than forty-eight hours without specific charges being preterred, it will go hard with the police if this same person should bring a suit for damages and this suit be tried before Judge Ashford.

Just how Judge Ashford felt in such a hypothetical case he made plain yes terony. It did not all go down in the record, for Court Reporter Jordan was told to suspend his hieroglyphic operations while the jurist had his say-an aside, as it were.

It all came out over the bringing of Sheriff Rose into court on an order to show cause why he kept Waichi Fujimoto in jail without warrant and without a charge being made against the mann.

Through Attorneys Will J. Sheldon and Andrews & Pittman, Masayoshi Ognwa, presumably a "next friend," flied a petition for a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of Enjimoto, yesterday morning, and Sheriff Rose was ordered to show cause at four o'clock in the afternoon.

New Quarters Needed

"The growing importance of th stock exchange as an institution in Hawaii is becoming apparent, and the great business which it transacts leads to the belief that more attention must in future be paid to the interests of its members as an association. With this object in view, the members recently arranged for the appointment of a per manent secretary, to be selected from outside the membership. New quar-ters of the ground floor of some build ing conveniently located for exchange curposes should be provided, so that sessions of the exchange may be accessible to the general public inter sted in the stock market.
